KATA ROCKS CELEBRATES FOURTH ANNIVERSARY IN GRAND STYLE

VIP guests treated to spectacular champagne brunch pool party at Phuket's premier luxury resort

PHUKET, 26 November, 2018 – Kata Rocks' fourth anniversary was yet another celebration of the finer things in life, with guests enjoying a lavish Champagne Brunch Pool Party.

Kata Rocks General Manager Somjai Tungkoo, said the fully-booked champagne brunch pool party on Saturday 24 November was the resort's best anniversary celebration to date. "It is truly gratifying how much people look forward to our anniversary parties every year as it has become a must attend event on Phuket. We were delighted by the response from guests as we continue to organise events that capture the essence of Kata Rocks."

Those in attendance included a 'who's who' of Phuket, including local business leaders, VIP's and loyal patrons of the resort. Kata Rocks' DJ powered brunches are now legendary for their stylish party atmosphere. And this year's fourth anniversary party celebrated Phuket's luxury lifestyle with a fantastic brunch, cool sounds and a nautical fashion parade performed by Domenico Gardini, an avant-garde fashion house.

Executive Chef Laia Pons and her team once again created inspired food pairings, with multiple fresh food stations serving delicious cuisine that perfectly complemented the free flow of Louis Roederer Champagne and Kata Rocks Gin cocktails.

Lauded as Phuket's 'Capital of Cool', Kata Rocks remains a top setting for exclusive happenings, parties and entertaining events. Kata Rocks celebrates its innovative approach to hospitality with an extensive line-up of much-anticipated 'see-and-be-seen' events.

Our executive team with our CEO, Richard Pope & our General Manager Somjai Tungkoo with our beautiful hostesses to welcome our guests.

Exquisite dishes with the finest mix of Thai & Mediterranean food were on the brunch menu.

Guests having a wonderful time during the pool party in our iconic infinity pool.
